CASE NO. T-0348:2

DECISION NO. 86-58

DECISION AND ORDER

PELRB on August 29, 1985 issued a Cease and Desist Order to the Lin-Wood Cooperative School Board preventing them from implementing any change in the time schedule for the 1986-87 school day, pending a hearing before PELRB scheduled for Tuesday, September 2, 1986.

Hearing was held as scheduled with both parties represented. After consideration of the testimony from Counsel for the School Board and representative for the Association, PELRB finds and rules as follows:

1. PELRB finds that the Petitioner has failed to show material changes in the work day although changes in the arrangement of the school day were clear; that,
2. Past practice with respect to previous length of the work day is still in effect; that
3. The Cease and Desist Order, Decision No. 86-58 issued August 29, 1986 is hereby withdrawn; that
4. With respect to impact of the various changes in the school day which the Administration has adopted, they may continue with implementation of such changes but they must begin immediate negotiations with the Association on the impact of these changes on members of the unit; and,
5. The Parties are hereby ORDERED to report compliance to this order and status of negotiations on a bi-weekly basis.
